

Future of Construction Economics - cases UK and Finland

Wednesday 20th March at 13-19

RIL, Töölönkatu 4, Helsinki

The seminar is the 30 years jubileum seminar of the Association of Construction Economists in Finland (RAKI) organized in co-operation with the Finnish Association of Civil Engineers (RIL)

13.00 Welcome to the seminar!!!

Tarmo Savolainen, Chairman of the Board, RAKI

Teemu Vehmaskoski, Director, RIL

13.10 Trends in the Field of Construction Management and Economics

Arto Saari, Professor of Construction Economics, Dr.

Aalto University, FINLAND

13.50 Benchmarking, BIM and Beyond...

Joe Martin, Executive Director

BCIS - Cost Information Service, UNITED KINGDOM

14.30 Coffee break

14.50 Construction business – Why don't we add value instead of destroying it?

Otto Alhava, CTO

Fira Oy, FINLAND

15.30 Quantity Surveyor's in the 21st century: robust or redundant?

Justin Sullivan, Executive Director, Owner

Adair Associates, UNITED KINGDOM

16.10 Value generation - BIM-systems prior design

Ari Pennanen, Dr., Partner

Haahtela Group, FINLAND

16.50 Conclusion of the seminar

17.00 Cocktails

19.00 The end of seminar

Organizers: RAKI and RIL

Sponsors: Tocoman and Rapal

